

Our Impact Within Charities and Organizations Around the World

We impact these hard working organizations with our science and technology both now and in the future

Environment, land and sea, air quality
Contingency planning
Cancer Foundations
Human, plant and animal diseases brought on by chemical overloading
Nutraceutical medicines
Sports organizations
Mountaineering organizations
Actively self governing legal, chemical, engineering, biology, technology & natural science professions
Family protection & supporting organizations
Organic foods and agricultural practices
Mental Health and Psychology professionals
Intercultural communications
Life coaching and personal development
Natural heritage preservation and protection
Space exploration
Democratic organizations
Cultural heritage and exchange
Educational alternatives
Media communication alternatives
Arts and music as part of the individual's lifelong pursuits
Organizations teaching wisdom, old and new principles
Electronic smog protection
National sovereignty organizations
Business associations